

BRIDGE MINISTER'S COLUMN: Rev. David Stinson

I came in March and have been with you bridging the gap between the Rev. Bert Marshall and your new settled minister. We will vote to call the Rev. Dr. Scott E. Couper on July 1st. I have enjoyed every moment of my brief time with you. I had two very marvelous classes on my Tuesdays with you, first studying Jesus' Sermon on the Mount and then Paul's Letter to the Philippians. It's been great working with Mary Milkey-May and her choirs. Perhaps you don't know how fortunate you are to have a musician and churchwoman of her talent. Tina Harris and I arrived the same week in the office. We both had to learn the ways of Centre Church almost from scratch. I thank her for being the first face people see when they come to Centre. She approaches her work as Administrative Assistant of the church with care and enthusiasm!

My last Sunday with you as Bridge will be July 15th. I will be working these next few weeks to make sure the turnover with Dr. Couper goes well and that he is set up for a strong start as the next minister. I will have nothing but good things to say about all of you to him. Toward the end of Philippians is Paul's encouraging exhortation to the church while absent from them:

Finally, brothers [and sisters] , whatever is true, whatever is noble, whatever is right, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is admirable—if anything is excellent or praiseworthy—think on these things. Whatever you have learned or received or heard from me, or seen in me—put it into to practice and the God of peace will be with you. (4:8-9)

That word whatever is used seven times in those few sentences. I have a young millennial friend who loves the word whatever. When I ask him about something he almost always says whatever. He doesn't mean to be vague, it's just his catchall word for all the things he hopes and feels. And so as I prepare to take my leave from you, thinking about all those whatever's, I'll leave you with the St. Paul's seven whatever's.

You are on the brink of a period of exciting growth and ministry in this town under the ministry of Dr. Couper. I'll be praying for you and him, in full confidence that 'the God of peace will be with you.'

~David Stinson.

The Search Committee is pleased to announce the candidacy call for our settled pastor position to the Reverend Dr. Scott Couper, AKA "Scott." Scott felt a call from God and the Centre Church to serve in Brattleboro and our committee felt the same way.

Scott grew-up in a military family travelling all over the USA, and thus moved every two-and-a-half years of his young life. He studied International Relations (School for International Service at the American University, Washington, D.C.) and travelled abroad to Chile, Nigeria and Zimbabwe (the latter two through Brattleboro's own School for International Training, SIT). While in university during the summers, Scott served as a local church pastor and chaplain in Pennsylvania. After earning a Bachelor's Degree, Scott became a missionary in the Kingdom of Lesotho monitoring human rights abuses. After returning to the USA, he married Susan Valiquette (also an ordained UCC minister) and then studied theology at the University of Chicago Divinity School and Chicago Theological Seminary. After earning a Master's Degree and becoming ordained in the UCC, Scott became a missionary, living with his wife and children (Micah and Madeline) in the Republic of South Africa. For eighteen years Scott served many local Congregational churches there, initiated and fostered HIV and AIDS ministries and curated a local history museum and archive for an historic Congregational school. While in South Africa, Scott earned a PhD in History and published a biography of the only Congregationalist to win the Nobel Peace Prize, Albert Luthuli. Scott's ministry also involved teaching political science, theology and history at two universities (one being SIT!) and at a Methodist seminary. Though an academic, Scott's desire is to be intimately accountable to a local faith community.

Scott's connection to Brattleboro reaches beyond his being a student of and lecturer for SIT. His great-great-great-great-grandfather was once sheriff of Brattleboro! For most of his life, Scott says he has felt in exile from and is eager to reside in his 'ancestral' New England (as most of his family is from Maine and Massachusetts). Both Scott and the Search Committee feel we were led by the Holy Spirit to be partners in Christ's ministry. Scott's ministerial passions are pastoral care, preaching, and community activism. Scott and Centre Church both share a love of history, a love for justice and a love for missional outreach – no doubt, a "match made in heaven"!

I crave the opportunity to partner with Centre Church that stands in radical solidarity with those who are most marginalized, be they on its doorstep or on another continent, and thus foster the Realm of God on Earth as it is in heaven. I found Centre Church to be a 'target rich environment' whereby I feel like a mosquito in a nudist camp – I simply don't know where to turn! – the past accomplishments, the present ministry opportunities and the future potential harvest are all so plentiful! Also I enjoy New England Clam 'Chowda', maple syrup, and running where my radiator will not have to work so hard!

Scott, Madeline, Micah

Search Committee feels Scott has high energy and experience. He has a focus on mission and will work to see the needs of the community and the strengths within the church to address those needs. He's a good listener, has a desire to get to know the congregation, and is easy to talk with. He's faith-filled, and always sees projects through to completion. He thoroughly enjoys teaching and is able to bridge his academics with sermons. Visiting, whether in homes, hospitals, or elder care institutions is very high on his list of priorities. The Search Committee feels as Scott said earlier in this letter that Centre Church and Scott are an excellent match.

Please join Centre Church in welcoming Scott on Saturday, June 30, for a meet and greet social, from 2-4:00 P.M. in the parlor. The next day, Sunday, Scott will preach and lead the service. This will be followed by a congregational meeting to vote to give him the call as our next settled pastor.

In Faith,
Your Search Committee

What an exiting time for Centre Church !

We have experienced a solid Interim Minister with Bert Marshall for the past 3 years ; A gifted personality and speaker with our Bridge Minister, David Stnson; and now the opportunity of a Settled Minister with Scott Couper. We have experienced much and Council is looking forward to an exciting and dynamic year ahead. Centre Church has been fortunate with the strong and effective leadership that Council and Centre Church has received from Margo Neale who assumed the Council Chair and has lead us for the past year. We all owe Margo our deepest gratitude. She has done Centre Church well. Thank her for her past and ongoing work. She is continuing as Vice Chair!! Centre Church is governed and directed by various Boards and Committees. It is your Church. Whether you are a Member or a Friend, all are welcome to participate in our Church life. There are openings to join in all areas of Centre Church life.

Everyone is welcome, and if interested (or you have a question) please ask any member of Council, a Board or Committee member. You will be welcomed. All views and interests are welcome. Become an active participant in Centre Church life! Council is eagerly anticipating the arrival of our new Settled Minister, Scott Couper, after more than three years of interim guidance. A new era will be beginning in our long history, since 1841. Much has happened over the past 200+ years, and we are looking forward to a significant and positive future.

Join Council in welcoming our new Minister.

Faith Formation

Faith Formation just wrapped up a great year with the church's children, finishing with a puppet show, song from the children's choir, and thank you cards and gifts on June 17th, Children's Sunday. We wanted to say a big THANK YOU again to everyone who helped out this year, with Faith In Action, the Children's Time messages, or all the behind the scenes work that goes into offering programing for the young people in the church. For the rest of the summer we will be offering nursery care for the 5 years old and under crowd, but the programming for the older children is out on summer vacation until school starts back up in September. See you then!

From Music Director,
MARY MILKEY-MAY

In June, the children's choir sang two more times, winding down the season on Children's Sunday, June 17th. This group, beginning in mid February, sang seven times between February and June including Easter Sunday. I am so proud of their enthusiasm, eagerness to learn and their dedication. I'm hoping we might have a few more "regulars" when we begin again in the fall.

June's special music also included Telemann flute sonatas for two flutes and continuo. Alison Hale once again graced us with her talents along with her friend/colleague, Judy Tabit. What a treat! Also during June, Jenifer Ambler and Haley Marcil shared their singing talents with us. We are very appreciative of their willingness to take part in summer music. Each chose a special piece for the particular Sunday and both were beautifully done!

There are still some slots to fill for the Sunday anthem during July and August. Please see me if you are willing to pitch in!

We would love to have some instrumentalists in addition to vocalists!

BOARD FOR MISSION & SERVICE

The Second Sunday Offering for July is PINS (Partners In Service) which directly assists the local DCF office with supplies to care for foster children. Often (and sadly) children are picked up on an emergency basis with barely even the clothes on their backs; sometimes a baby will be picked up on only a diaper! Funding from us and other private sources helps mostly to provide safe car seats, plus diapers, blankets, snacks and toys for children waiting in the DCF office while their cases are processed. We hear about the increasing opioid epidemic; this is one small way we can help the innocent children stuck in unfortunate situations.

Sister Parish News

We received a thank you from Global Ministries that our Luz del Mundo scholarship contribution of $852 (from the Latin dinner Dance and other contributions) has been delivered. This will cover the second half of the school year for our students (the school year there runs from January to November). Thank you to everyone who gave and helped!

Has anyone been curious about seeing El Salvador and meeting our Luz del Mundo Scholarship students? The Sister Parish program will be hosting a Sister Parish Encuentro from November 6 - 10, 2018 in the beautiful town of La Palma, a beautiful artisan mecca in the foothills of the mountains. Registration is $400 per person and flights are currently running $700-$750 from Hartford. Talk to Jenifer Ambler if you think you might be interested!

Buildings and Grounds

Hurray! Hurrah! Let our Centre Bell steeple ring. Thanks to many members, (eighteen so far), contributions for the steeple fund are happening. We are currently one quarter of the way there. To date, eighteen members have contributed $5400, and a matching challenge grant brought that figure up to $10,400. The next step is to continue to replenish the funds we are borrowing from our endowment. Hopefully another church member will offer a matching challenge contribution. If you feel so inclined to be that individual or family, please let Tina Harris, our Administrative Secretary, know and you can be guided through the easy steps to do this. Let's face it, it is something we voted to do, and it will be a lot easier than baking tons of cupcakes or dishing out platefuls of spaghetti for the next few years.

WOMEN'S SPIRIT . . .

The group, which meets each Thursday at 4:30 in the library, continues the intriguing reading and study of Reza Aslan's GOD, A HUMAN HISTORY. Everyone is welcome to join the group at any time.

BRATTLEBORO CENTRE FOR CHILDREN

Brattleboro Centre for Children would like to extend a big thank you to all the church members and families who contributed to the bake sale at the Strolling of the Heifers parade again this year. We earned nearly $500 and that goes a long way to help the children, teachers, and families at BCC. Thank you also to Mission and Service for including us in the Second Sunday offering. June was our month, and we have yet to see the totals, but are hopeful for a significant help there as well. (I'm sure if you "missed" making a Second Sunday donation, it's not too late, if you put Centre for Children in the subject line!) Thank you so very much!

We are looking forward to summer, and water play on the lawn again. It's a favorite time of year for the children, being able to cool off on those hot sunny summer days. We also want you to know what we are working on in all our classes right now. In the preschool they are exploring the study of ponds. In the toddler room they have built a campsite right inside the classroom. The mobile infants (upstairs) are looking into farms and farm animals. And the infants are working on moving: beginning to crawl, cruise, and yes, even to walk.

Please know that visitors (and volunteers) are welcome. If you'd like to schedule a visit, or find a time to spend in a classroom, please let Nan know.

What's happening at Loaves & Fishes?

*Give thanks to the Lord, for he is good.
His love endures forever. Psalm 136:1*

On Tuesday, June 5th, as the noon meal was ending, representatives from the General & Emergency Assistance Program of the Vermont Agency of Human Services, Program Director Geoffrey Pippenger; and Program Assistant Administrator Ashley Lowe; facilitated a discussion with about a dozen attendees from the Loaves & Fishes community. The purpose of this GA Roundtable was for the State representatives to get feedback and input from those in need of State assistance with a view toward how these programs might be restructured.

While I was engaged in cleaning up the kitchen area for much of the meeting and not privy to the conversation, I was amazed at the energy and enthusiasm expressed. At one point, one participant's words were met with resounding applause by the other attendees.

A written report was submitted by one participant; a pertinent excerpt is re-printed here:

I would like to know how much money was spent on so called general assistance - the temporary allocation of living space - how much was allotted to housing needy folk in this Town of Brattleboro, and nearby Vermont recently? ...

I would like to compare that cost for that number of clientele with what I believe we could provide locally, without a motel bill. I am certain we have space available, and people willing to work in earnest to provide such services, for less than what the State of Vermont now pays to motels.

~ Joe Dever, cf: <http://tomorrowbuilders.org/>

As I was preparing to write this column, I sought out another attendee to see if he would give me a quote. He declined due to time constraints. But a person at the table overheard our discussion and said she would write something, even though she was not a party to the Roundtable. Here it is: Those of us who are fed & encouraged by the presence of "Loaves & Fishes" wish to express our gratitude to all they have been to many of us over the years. The work they do has been such a boost to so many of us! ~ Sylvia Flakes

We have some very exciting news! The Hannaford Supermarket located in Brattleboro, VT has chosen LOAVES AND FISHES as a beneficiary of the Hannaford Helps Reusable Bag Program! This means for the entire month of JULY every time the Fight Hunger bag is purchased at the BRATTLEBORO VT Hannaford, we receive $1! This is truly a great opportunity for us and an easy way for you to show your support for LOAVES AND FISHES! Please go to the store, find the reusable bag rack and buy a few bags! And remember to spread the word – the more bags purchased, the bigger donation to LOAVES AND FISHES.

Fathers Day Picnic

Father's Day turned out sunny, and not as hot as predicted. It was a perfect day for the All Church Picnic at the Kiwanis shelter in Living Memorial Park. Even though Member Care started planning for this in April, we found out someone else had beat us to our ALWAYS second Sunday in June.

The set up crew Anne Doesburg, Cynthia MacMillin, Carolyn Smith and others, arrived at 10:30 (had to miss church) to get the tablecloths on, and make the other preparations. Darrel Daley, Steve Fecto and James Cera were the Dads at the grill, cooking up hot dogs and hamburgers. Picnickers brought delicious salads and yummy desserts. There was watermelon, too, from Carolyn Smith.

Jackson Grobe was our official counter and came up with the number 40 in attendance.

David Stinson asked how many years back had this event had been going on?. Marion Daley said it was before she joined in 1989. We will have to check that out with Jack Bixby and Allen Vander Muelen, both former pastors at Centre Church.

Member Care

"And after the services we hope you'll join us for coffee, cappuccino, decaf cappuccino, double decaf cappuccino, latte, latte mocha, mocha java, double mocha decaf . . ."

The season of "Coffee Hour" is over and Member Care starts the hot months of July and August with cold drinks. This used to be called "Lemonade-on-the-Lawn", which had a nice alliterate sound to it.....but it is not easy to set up. Lugging tables and pitchers of lemonade out into the hot sun is more work that it is worth. Besides, said one member the children have their lemonade stand! Therefore we will gather in the parlor and have cold drinks and light snacks. That is until the last Sunday in July or August when it is Centre Church's turn to have all the Congregationalists and others at CCC. Just because we don't want to be out done by the others....we'll load up the serving table with delicious, delectable, goodies. You might be asked to help! It is appropriate to thank all those who hosted our social time after church. There were many who did,---- and some served more than once. The Church Mouse complained that folks are so neat in cleaning up, that nary a crumb was left over for his munching. What we accomplished this past year was written in the annual report. We are always on the search for folks to do some visiting or provide rides.
